- (3) Cut-off grade of 0.5 grams of gold equivalent for the "Overall" resources.
- (4) Numbers have been rounded.
- (5) "Underground" Mineral Resources are estimated at a cut-off grade of 1.75 g/t Au equivalent at a ratio of 83:1 (Ag: Au) using a 94% Au recovery and 80% Ag recovery and are included in the "Overall" resources.
- (6) Mineral Resources are estimated using a long-term gold price of US$850 per ounce, a silver price of US$12 per ounce, and a US$:peso exchange rate of 1:10.58.

A Technical Report dated February 15, 2009 was filed on SEDAR for the new resources. The estimated Underground Resources have been extracted from the Overall Resources as shown in the table below by applying a cut-off grade of 1.75 g/t. The Probable Reserve estimate remained the same as shown above and stated in the Pre-Feasibility Study dated August 11, 2008 and is not part of the Indicated and Inferred Resource estimate.

The Base Case economics from the Pre-Feasibility study completed in 2008 showed a pre-tax Internal Rate of Return of 100% and a pre-tax cash flow of US$103.7 million. The payback period for the initial capital of US$20 million is approximately 12 months. The open pit heap leach operation will process ore at a rate of 2,500 tonnes per day and is expected to produce an average of 30,000 ounces of gold and 500,000 ounces of silver per year for an estimated mine life of 8 years. Metal prices for the purpose of the base case economic analyses were US$765 and US$11.95 for gold and silver respectively.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Business combinations, non-controlling interest and consolidated financial statements

In January 2009, the CICA issued Handbook Sections 1582 "Business Combinations", 1601 "Consolidated Financial Statements" and 1602 "Non-controlling Interests" which replace CICA Handbook Sections 1581 "Business Combinations" and 1600 "Consolidated Financial Statements". Section 1582 establishes standards for the accounting for business combinations that is equivalent to the business combination accounting standard under IFRS. Section 1582 is applicable for the Company's business combinations with acquisition dates on or after January 1, 2011. Section 1601 together with Section 1602 establishes standards for the preparation of consolidated financial statements. Section 1601 is applicable for the Company's interim and annual consolidated financial statements for its fiscal year beginning January 1, 2011. Early adoption of these Sections is permitted and all three Sections must be adopted concurrently.

International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS")

In February 2008, the Canadian Accounting Standards Board confirmed that Canadian public enterprises will need to adopt International Financial Reporting Standards effective for years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. Accordingly, the Company will be required to adopt IFRS on January 1, 2011. The transition will require the restatement for comparative purposes of amounts reported by the Company for the year ended December 30, 2010. The conversion to IFRS from Canadian GAAP may materially affect the Company's reported financial position and results of operations and will affect the Company's accounting policies, information technology and data systems, internal control over financial reporting, and disclosure controls and procedures.

The transition may also impact business activities, such as foreign currency and hedging activities, certain contractual arrangements, debt covenants, capital requirements and compensation arrangements. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the transition to IFRS on its financial reporting systems and business activities and ensuring the appropriate personnel resources and training are in place to ensure an efficient transition.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company is exposed to various financial instrument risks and assesses the impact and likelihood of this exposure. These risks include liquidity risk, credit risk, and interest rate risk. Where material these risks are reviewed and monitored by the Board of Directors.

a. Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company maintains sufficient cash balances to meet current working capital requirements. The Company is considered to be in the exploration and development stage. Thus, it is dependent on obtaining regular financings in order to continue its exploration and development programs. Despite previous success in acquiring these financings, there is no guarantee of obtaining future financings. The Company's cash is invested in business accounts with quality financial institutions and which is available on demand for the Company's programs, and is not invested in any asset backed commercial paper.

b. Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if the counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its liquid financial assets including cash and equivalents and amounts receivable. The Company limits exposure to credit risk on liquid financial assets through maintaining its cash and equivalents with high-credit quality financial institutions.

c. Interest Rate Risk

The Company's exposure to interest rate risk arises from the interest rate impact on its cash and equivalents and fluctuations in the LIBOR rate applicable to its long-term debt. The Company's practice has been to invest cash at floating rates of interest, in cash equivalents, in order to maintain liquidity, while achieving a satisfactory return for shareholders. There is minimal risk that the Company would recognize any loss as a result of a decrease in the fair value of any guaranteed bank investment certificates included in cash and equivalents as they are generally held with large financial institutions. Interest expense is calculated at a rate of Canadian LIBOR plus 2.75 and 7.5% which currently is approximately 3.06% and 7.80% respectively. A 1% change in the market interest rates would not have a significant effect on the Company's loss and comprehensive loss for the period.

Commodity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on earnings and economic value due to commodity price movements and volatilities. The commodity price risk could affect the completion of future equity transactions such as equity offerings and the exercise of stock options and warrants. The Company closely monitors commodity prices of precious metals, individual equity movements and the stock market to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken by the Company. In order to mitigate this risk, the Company has entered into a gold price protection program. The gold price protection program is comprised of 55,000 ounces of sold call options for the first three years of production of the Santa Elena Project at a minimum price of US$926.50 per ounce. As at September 30, 2009, the Company has a mark to market derivative instrument liability of $4,083,742.

INDUSTRY AND ECONOMIC FACTORS AFFECTING PERFORMANCE

Certain factors affect the Company's ability to finance and to carry on normal business. These include precious metal prices, competition amongst exploration firms for attractive mineral properties, the interest of investors in providing high-risk equity capital to exploration companies, and the availability of qualified staff and drilling equipment to conduct exploration. For the Company, which is focused almost exclusively on exploration and development of silver resources, silver prices and the availability of equity funds are important factors.

RISK FACTORS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Mineral exploration and development involves a high degree of risk and few properties are ultimately developed into producing mines. Several of the Company's properties have silver resources; however, substantial expenditures will be required to confirm sufficient reserves required to commercially mine its current properties and to obtain the environmental approvals and permitting required to commence commercial operations. Should any resource be defined on other properties there can be no assurance that the mineral resources can be commercially mined or that the metallurgical processing will produce economically viable, saleable products.

Future operations, if any, of the Company, including development activities and commencement of production on its properties, will require permits from various federal and local governmental authorities, and such operations are and will be governed by laws and regulations governing prospecting, development, mining, production, taxes, labor standards, occupational health, waste disposal, toxic substances, land use, environmental protection, mine safety and other matters.

Companies engaged in the development and operation of mines and related facilities generally experience increased costs and delays in production and other schedules as a result of the need to comply with the applicable laws, regulations and permits. There can be no assurance that all permits which the Company may require for the construction of any mining facilities and conduct of mining operations will be obtainable on reasonable terms or that such laws and regulations would not have an adverse effect on any mining project which the Company might undertake.
